

Greenleaf Press History - Scope & Sequence

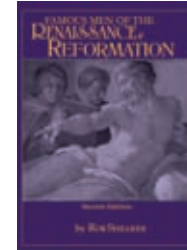

Grade	Time Period	Spine Book
1st Grade	Ancient Israel	The Bible
2nd Grade	Ancient Egypt	The Pharaohs of Ancient Egypt
3rd Grade	Ancient Greece	Famous Men of Greece
4th Grade	Ancient Rome	Famous Men of Rome
5th Grade	Middle Ages	Famous Men of the Middle Ages
6th Grade	Renaissance & Reformation	Famous Men of the Renaissance & Reformation
7th Grade	17th & 18th Century	Famous Men of the 16th & 17th Century (15 weeks) George Washington's World (15 weeks)
8th Grade	19th & 20th Century	Abraham Lincoln's World (10 weeks) Marrin: Virginia's General (6 weeks) Marrin: Teddy Roosevelt (6 weeks) Marrin: Yanks, Stalin, Hitler, America & Vietnam (8 weeks)

The keys to teaching history to children are chronology and biography. This is the pattern the Bible uses to teach history and the historical books of the Bible are a practical example of history that captures a child's imagination. The Bible is not a series of moral tales like Aesop's Fables. The Bible is a historical record of the acts of God and of faithful and faithless men - and the consequences of their actions.

www.GreenleafPress.com
the first (and still the best) resource for teaching history to children

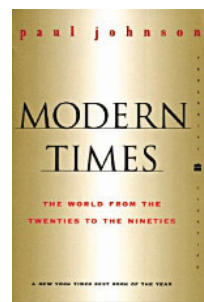

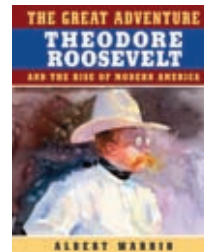

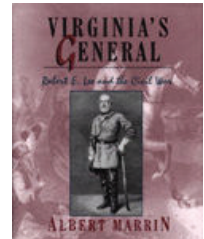

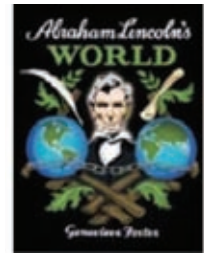

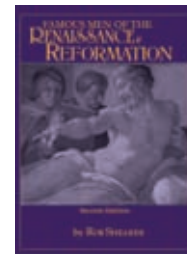

Greenleaf Press History - Scope & Sequence High School

Grade	Time Period	Spine Books
9th Grade	Ancient History	The Bible, Pharaohs, Greece, Rome
10th Grade	Middle Ages, Ren&Ref	FM of the Middle Ages, FM of the Ren&Ref
11th Grade	Early Modern	FM 16th & 17th C., Washington's World, Lincoln's World, Virginia's General
12th Grade	Modern Times	Teddy Roosevelt, Modern Times

The keys to teaching history to children are chronology and biography. This is the pattern the Bible uses to teach history and the historical books of the Bible are a practical example of history that captures a child's imagination. The Bible is not a series of moral tales like Aesop's Fables. The Bible is a historical record of the acts of God and of faithful and faithless men - and the consequences of their actions.

www.GreenleafPress.com
the first (and still the best) resource for teaching history to children

Greenleaf Press History - Scope & Sequence alternate plans

Grade	7 year plan	6 year plan	5 year plan	4 year plan
2nd Grade	Israel & Egypt
3rd Grade	Ancient Greece	Israel & Egypt
4th Grade	Ancient Rome	Greece & Rome	Israel & Egypt
5th Grade	Middle Ages	Middle Ages	Greece & Rome	Israel, Egypt, Greece & Rome
6th Grade	Ren & Ref	Ren & Ref	Middle Ages, Ren & Ref	Middle Ages, Ren & Ref
7th Grade	17th & 18th Century	17th & 18th Century	17th & 18th Century	17th & 18th Century
8th Grade	19th & 20th Century	19th & 20th Century	19th & 20th Century	19th & 20th Century

The keys to teaching history to children are chronology and biography. This is the pattern the Bible uses to teach history and the historical books of the Bible are a practical example of history that captures a child's imagination. The Bible is not a series of moral tales like Aesop's Fables. The Bible is a historical record of the acts of God and of faithful and faithless men - and the consequences of their actions.

www.GreenleafPress.com
the first (and still the best) resource for teaching history to children

